Sukho Noodle

Serves: 4

SUKHOTHAI'S LOCAL DISH, SUKHO NOODLE, IS A RICE NOODLE SERVED IN MILD SPICY BROTH, TOPPED WITH PORK SLICES, FISH BALLS, DRIED SHRIMP, CRUSHED PEANUTS AND THINLY SLICED GREEN BEANS.

MAKING THIS DISH

Cook rice noodles according to the instructions on the pack. Drain and set aside.

Boil the chicken stock, then pour it over the cooked noodles.

Add sugar and fish sauce, to taste.

To serve place green beans over the noodles, top with pork slices, fish balls, dried shrimp, cooked minced pork, crushed peanuts, deep fried wonton skin, fried garlic and spring onion.

THINGS TO SEE AND DO

UNESCO World Heritage listed Sukhothai Historical Park

UNESCO World Heritage listed Si Satchanalai Historical Park

Wat Si Chum (A temple ruin located just outside Sukhothai Historical Park, home to Phra Atchana, a stunningly gigantic Buddha image)

Ban Na Ton Chan (A small village known for its award-winning community-based tourism and mud-soaked fabric)

Si Satchanalai District (Ancient gold and silver reproductions of Si Satchanalai District are entirely hand-made by skilled workers. Rather than being moulded, the jewellery pieces are hand-woven into various shapes and designs from tiny strands of gold or silver.)

Try Sukhothai noodle dishes, especially Guay Tiew Sukho and Khao Perp.

SUKHOTHAI

Sukhothai was the capital of the first Kingdom of Siam in the 13th and 14th centuries. It has a number of fine monuments, illustrating the beginnings of Thai architecture. The Kingdom enjoyed a golden age under King Ramkhamhaeng, who is credited with creating the Thai alphabet. Sukhothai is renowned for its historical sites, which house several ancient temples, Buddha figures and palace buildings.

TRAVEL TIPS

Sukhothai Historical Park and Si Satchanalai Historical Park are best toured by bicycle.

Sukhothai's Loi Krathong is held annually on the full moon night of the 12th lunar month (usually November) at the Sukhothai Historical Park. The light and sound shows are spectacular with fireworks and cultural performance.
