Southern Thai

ใต้

Deep Fried Prawn Serves: 4

A SIMPLE BUT DELICIOUS DISH FROM SOUTHERN THAILAND THAT USES SHELL-ON SCHOOL PRAWNS SO TO NOT MISS OUT ON ANY FLAVOUR.

MAKING THIS DISH

Pre-heat a deep fryer to 180-190 degrees celsius or heat oil in a skillet on medium heat.

Finely slice kaffir lime leaves and add into a medium sized mixing bowl, along with water, curry paste and salt. Mix well.

Using a whisk, add the flour into the mixture. Mix until combined, then add school prawns.

Spoon the mixture into the hot oil, shallow fry until golden, about 10 minutes.

Once golden, remove from oil and place on a paper towel lined plate. Serve immediately with sweet chilli sauce.

WHAT YOU'LL NEED

500ml of cooking oil

1 cup self-raising flour

11/4 cold water

1 tbsp red curry paste

200g school prawn

1/2 tsp salt

4-5 kaffir lime leaves

Sweet chilli sauce to serve

KRABI

Home to the world – renowned Mu Koh Phi Phi and Railay Beach, Krabi offers spectacular coastline with stunning rock formations and clear turquoise waters and lush hinterland featuring scenic waterfalls, underground caves and limestone mountains.

There are plenty of activities for both visitors who love adventures in the nature as well as those who look for a relaxing holiday.

TRAVEL TIPS

The region has been featured in several famous movies e.g. The Beach, Bridget Jones' Diary; Tomorrow Never Dies and The Man with the Golden Gun.

Often associated with Phuket, Phi Phi islands are actually in Krabi province.

Mu Koh Lanta National Park covers the islands of Koh Ngai, Koh Rok, Koh Ha and Koh Lanta. It features fine, white sandy beaches, limestone hills and lush forests. Koh Lanta is also a fantastic location for snorkelling and scuba diving.

Ao Nang is the major connecting point for boat trips to nearby islands and Railay Beach (Railay Bay). There are also Tuk Tuks and motorbike sidecars, which will take you to most places in the local vicinity.

Despite connecting to the mainland, Railay Beach (Railay Bay) is accessible by boat only.

EACH OF THE FOUR DIFFERENT REGIONS OF THAILAND HAS THEIR OWN UNIQUE STYLE OF COOKING AND TASTES.

Every 10 days we will be showing you how to cook a different Thai dish from each of the 4 regions in Thailand, using ingredients you can find in Australia.

We have recipes from all regions to collect, make at home and share with your family and friends.
