THINGS TO SEE AND DO

Beaches (Patong, Kata and Karon offer all ranges of accommodation in bustling atmosphere with restaurants, shops and bars along the beach. Mai Khao, Nai Thon, Bang Tao, Surin and Panwa are relatively tranquil with more luxury accommodations).

Island hopping tour & Phang Nga Bay cruise

Scuba diving around Similan Islands

Dining out in Phuket Old Town and by the beach

Wat Chalong in Phuket

Phuket Old Town & Takua Pa Old Town in Phang Nga

PHUKET AND PHANG NGA

A visit to a crowd – favourite holiday destination, Phuket, doesn't necessarily mean it will be crowded. Phuket has more than Patong Beach and a tour to Phi Phi Islands. There are many other places to see and things to do, from the less known beaches and islands, to the beautiful architecture of the old town, the lush tropical jungle, the local and international cuisines, Thai boxing camps, cooking classes, etc. The neighbouring province of Phang Nga is home to Khao Lak, featuring sandy beach on the west side and jungles on the east side.

TRAVEL TIPS

The best time to enjoy beach and water activities is between November and April as there tends to be less rainfall in these months.

Remember to check the opening periods of the national parks before you visit.

The best lookouts in Phuket are Laem Phromthep, Khao Rang Hill, Big Buddha, Laem Panwa and Windmill Viewpoint, whereas the best one in Phang Nga is Samed Nang Chee.

Phuket Old Town is best explored on foot. (Thalang, Phang - Nga, Krabi and Dibuk roads are the highlights. Don't miss Sunday Walking Street.)

Most big resorts offer Thai cooking class at reasonable cost to their guests.

EACH OF THE FOUR DIFFERENT REGIONS OF THAILAND HAS THEIR OWN UNIQUE STYLE OF COOKING AND TASTES.

Every 10 days we will be showing you how to cook a different Thai dish from each of the 4 regions in Thailand, using ingredients you can find in Australia.

We have recipes from all regions to collect, make at home and share with your family and friends.

Remember there are more recipes and Thai cooking ideas on our website.
